Thanksgiving Leftovers

Pictured below are a few pictures from Thanksgiving activities that came in too late for the pre-vacation Communicator.

Toy Drive

Once again we will have a toy drive for the children of Reynosa, Mexico. Ernie and Donna Luna and their daughter, Jessica will be delivering toys to children in Mexico. Last year they, along with members of their church, were able to provide toys and some blankets to 300 children in the town of Reynosa, Mexico.

This year Mrs. Luna is requesting that we only donate new toys. She would like dolls, trucks, and cars. Dollar General has many appropriate toys for $2- $3.

From now until Tuesday, Dec. 15th your child may bring in any of the above mentioned toys to their teacher. The Lunas will be collecting them that day and will transport them to Mexico.

Holly Days

Celebrate Christmas downtown in Hillsboro on Saturday, December 5th. 1) FREE covered wagon rides downtown from 10am-3pm; 2) FFA Chili Feed at the City Building from 11 am-1pm; 3) "Christmas Memories" Parade at 1pm; 4) Old-Fashioned Christmas with St. Nikolas at the Schaeffler House from 2-5pm.

Dandy Dirt Dessert

Kindergarten students were recently seen mixing up a batch of Dandy Dirt Dessert, a delicious way to learn about “d’s”.
