American Education Week

Next week (November 16-20) is American Education Week. The 88th annual American Education Week (AEW) spotlights the importance of providing every child in America with a quality public education, and the need for everyone to do his or her part in making public schools great.

To that end we are planning on celebrating in some special ways. Beginning on Monday, November 16, we will celebrate Muffins for Mom's Day. All moms are invited to spend anywhere from a couple of minutes to 30 or 40 minutes in their child's classroom. This can occur at anytime that's convenient for moms. Just stop by the office, sign in, get a name tag and muffin, and we'll send you to the room or have your child come get you.

On Wednesday, November 18, we'll celebrate Donuts for Dad's Day. Again, stop by the office and then follow the procedure listed above.

Friday, November 20, will be Grapes for Grandparents/Caregivers Day. Once again follow the procedure already mentioned and enjoy a visit to your special persons' school/classroom.

Remember to grab a muffin, donut, or handful of grapes while you're here!
